Words:

O nā mea huna no'eau O nā mele ē
E hō mai
E hō mai
E hō mai ē

Translation:
Grant us knowledge from above
The things of knowledge hidden in the chants
Grant us
Grant us
Grant us

Pronunciation and Performance Notes:
ō pronounced as 'ore' with less 'r' sound.
ē pronounced as 'eh' rhyming with 'meh'

This chant is very freely sung, and not to be too 'in time'.
Aim for a resonant vocal tone quality.
Vocal 'cracks' are of the style. They show deep expression and connection to call for guidance and knowledge.

A leader can cue the beginning of the song by singing the first line solo, then shouting 'pa'.
The group then sings as a whole from the first line.
